Excerpt from Annual Report of the President and Treasurer, 1909 To the Board of Trustees of Wellesley College: - In presenting my eleventh annual report to the Board of Trustees I must gratefully acknowledge their kindness in granting me a leave of absence, which became necessary owing to severe illness in the spring of 1908. As the autumn approached, it seemed evident that it would be unwise for me to undertake a winter at Wellesley, and I must thank the Trustees for the cordial way in which they granted me a year's vacation. Happily, it was not necessary to avail myself of the whole of it, and I returned to college by the middle of May. As Commencement Day this year did not come until June 29th, I thus had more than six weeks of the very busiest of the college life. I must first of all express my warm appreciation of the able manner in which affairs had been conducted during my absence by the Dean and by the administrative officers associated with her. With...
