Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. This extensive 20 chapter book (with 12 bonus interviews from industry veterans with TV and/or feature film credits), is designed to help you move you from confusion to clarity with a specific creative career development plan. (See endorsements below.) You were born at a great time. In many ways, we are in a modern day Renaissance for creatives. There are significant cultural, economic, and technological factors that have converged in this generation that provide an opportunity for you like no other time in history. With the number of new found opportunities for artists, supported by creative industry reports predicting continued growth, it is critically important for creatives to find clarity. There are hundreds of ways to make a living as an artist, so it's more important than ever to figure out exactly what you were built for. You need to discover your calling and identify your core creative marketable strengths, then you need to set goals, plan your work, then work your plan. ENDORSEMENTS An immensely practical guide for the creative in all of us. Todd Hampson's work has blessed me and thousands of others - his writing about the nuts and bolts of being a working creative will bless many more. Highly recommended! Phil Vischer - Creator of VeggieTales and What's in the Bible? When someone with Todd Hampson's credentials and experience talks about creativity, I listen. In fact, his new book, Calling All Artists was the kick in the pants I needed to move forward on my next project. If you live a creative life (and all of us should), then I recommend the book. You won't regret it. Phil Cooke...
