

History's Greatest Scandals: Shocking Stories of Powerful People

By Wright, Ed.

Thunder Bay Press. 1 Paperback(s), 2006. soft. Book Condition: New. When the best and the brightest behave in a disgraceful manner, it's hard to look the other way; with that in mind, Ed Wright has assembled here 28 chapter-length profiles of powerful individuals who rightly or wrongly have been dragged from their pedestals, including Aaron Burr, Thomas Jefferson, Howard Hughes, Roman Polanski, Jimmy Swaggart, and Richard Nixon, as well as some who couldn't be content with just one scandal, among them Caravaggio and the Marquis de Sade. Among the less frequently recalled cases discussed here are silent film star Fatty Arbuckle, whose career was destroyed by a rape charge; British politician Jeremy Thorpe, who attempted to hide his homosexuality by plotting to murder his lover; and composer Percy Grainger, a fanatical flagellant. 256.
