Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Extra Hymn-Book The Extra Hymn-Book is intended to be, to the hymn-books already in use, what an extra newspaper is to the regular edition. As the extra newspaper publishes news received or invented after the regular edition goes to press, so this little book contains hymns which have been made or brought into use since the issue of most of the larger Sunday-school hymn-books published by the denominational and union publishing houses. This book is supplementary to them. It can be bound with them, or fastened in the back of them, or used separately. It brings them down to the present time. It is made because it is needed and has been loudly called for. During the past few years the Sunday-school has been inundated with a vast deluge of material for singing, of various degrees of merit and demerit as to both music and words. Gems of sacred song have been put side by side with crippled rhymes or empty ballads; truly devotional hymns have been degraded by contact with sentimental doggerel whose only attraction is the jingling repetition of unmeaning chorus. Sunday-school people are awake to the fact that children can and will sing. Let us also be awake as to what ought to be sung. Children will sing any thing they are taught, unless the tune is too dismal. They will sing nonsense as eagerly as wisdom; trash, as earnestly as good poetry; deadly error, as musically as saving truth. We must be careful to give them only that which is good.
