Reviews

The publication is straightforward in study better to fully grasp. It is definitely simplistic but excitement inside the 50 percent of your publication. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Applewood Books. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 324 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 5.9in. x 0.9in. In submitting to the reading public the following pages, it is but proper to inform them why the author has written these Leaves from the Diary of an Army Surgeon, or on what grounds he lays claim to their perusal of this narrative of incidents of the war. In the autumn of 1861, when recruiting was at its zenith, and the City Hall Park was white with the tents of recruiting officers and its streets resonant with sound of fife and drum, repeated and daily representations were made to the then Governor of the State, by commanding officers of regiments, of the incompetency and total want of knowledge of the military and professional duties, by the surgeons who had been appointed to the various regiments already sent to the seat of war ;these complaints became so frequent and well grounded that the appointment of a Post Surgeon, whose duty it would be to organize the medical staff of each regiment, inspect and vaccinate the recruits, attend the sick, and instruct the regimental surgeons, assistant-surgeons, and hospital stewards in their duties, on their being appointed by the Surgeon-general, was decided on, and the writer was selected for that position, by the heads of the departments.
