The mathematician is perfect as far as he understands mathematics; but there are problems unsolved. The chemist is perfect as far as his analysis extends, but he is still learning. A child may be perfect as a child, but he does not remain a child; he progresses to manhood, and from manhood to Godhood. Eternal life is freedom to progress; death is to be bound by limitations. Adam fell that man might be; that spirits might have bodies of flesh. An evil spirit can never become a child and have a body, he remains in his present condition; those spirits that rebelled and were cast out of heaven, cut themselves off from further progression; this is their condemnation. The student who masters arithmetic does well, but if he ignore algebra and geometry, he cuts himself off from filling important positions...
